NO AUTOGRAPHS — ANY MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA REQUESTING AUTOGRAPHS WILL HAVE PRESS ACCESS REVOKED.

ALLAN H. "BUD" SELIG

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

For the past 25 years, Allan H. "Bud" Selig has been the driving force behind baseball in Milwaukee and at the national level in his capacity as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Milwaukee Brewers.

Committed to keeping Major League Baseball in Milwaukee, Selig has been an integral player in the ever-changing world of baseball economics. Since being appointed as the Chairman of the game's Executive Council on September 9, 1992, his involvement with the game on a national basis has increased dramatically. In that capacity, Selig oversees the committee which has authority of the Baseball Commissioner.

Selig is also Chairman of the Major League Baseball Player Relations Committee, a member of the Major League Ownership Committee and a trustee of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

With the addition of Sal Bando as Senior Vice President—Baseball Operations in October of 1991, Selig re-emphasized his commitment to winning. Now, as the club strives to win in the Central Division, Selig and Bando work toward putting an outstanding team on the field for Brewers fans to cheer. Ironically, it was Bando who first made the Brewers a legitimate pennant contender when he signed as the club's first free agent in 1977.

Selig's Brewers are committed to developing a strong farm system. They have won seven "Organization of the Year" awards, including the prestigious TOPPS "Organization of the Year" award in 1992, 1991, 1989 and 1987. In addition, the Brewers won an unprecedented three straight Baseball America awards from 1985-87. In the '90's, the Brewers minor league system has the best record in baseball (1874-1525, .551).

Selig has been lauded for his efforts on numerous occasions. Most recently, he was named as Wisconsin's Top Sports Personality over the past 25 years by the Milwaukee Pen & Mike Club in February, 1995. He also was honored with the "World of Difference" Award from the Anti-Defamation League at a dinner in Milwaukee in February 1994.

On May 16, 1993, Selig was the recipient of the distinguished Ellis Island Congressional Medal of Honor. The medal is awarded to outstanding citizens of the United States who have contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of their ancestors.

In December of 1990, Bud received the "Distinguished Citizen Award" from the Potawatomi Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Under Selig's tutelage, the Brewers received the "Baird Award for Management Excellence" in April of 1989. The Baird Award is given annually to a Wisconsin corporation that consistently demonstrates superior financial achievement and community involvement.

In February of 1981, Selig was honored by the B'nai B'rith Foundation and received the "International B'nai B'rith Sportsman of the Year Award" for his distinguished contributions to the world of sports. He was singled out in May of 1983 by the United States Olympic Committee to receive their distinguished "Sportsman of the Year Award" for his contributions to baseball and to youth activities in Milwaukee.

Also counted among Selig's many honors is the prestigious "August A. Busch, Jr. Award" presented at a joint meeting of the Major Leagues in September of 1989. The award is given for "long and meritorious service to baseball" and is equivalent—for off-field personnel—to the players' Most Valuable Player Award. In 1978, he was named "Major League Executive of the Year" by United Press International, one of the most prestigious awards a baseball executive can earn.

Selig is a member of the Board of Directors of the Green Bay Packers Football Team, the Greater Milwaukee Committee, University of Wisconsin-Medical School, Baird Mutual Funds, the Milwaukee Symphony and the Oil-Dri Corporation of America. He is a founder of the Athletes for Youth, was instrumental in establishing the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund and serves on the Advisory Board of BADD (Business Against Drunk Drivers).

Bud and his wife, Sue, have become very active in the community and were co-recipients of the "1990 Humanitarian Award" from the St. Francis Children's Center. They co-chaired the 1989 Cerebral Palsy Telethon and lend their support and time to the Milwaukee Art Museum.

Selig was born July 30, 1934, in Milwaukee. He graduated from Milwaukee's Washington High School in 1952 and from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1956.

where he majored in American History and Political Science. In college, his roommate was current United States Senator and Milwaukee Bucks owner Herb Kohl. After two years in the Army, Selig returned to civilian life to work for his father in the automobile business. Selig presently retains ties to that industry by serving as President of the Selig Executive Lease Company.

A baseball fan as a youngster, Selig followed the old Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs. When Milwaukee joined the Major Leagues in 1953, Bud became a Braves fan. He subsequently became the Braves largest public stockholder in 1963, before selling his stock two years later when the Braves moved to Atlanta.

In December of 1964, he organized "Teams, Inc.", an organization formed to return Major League Baseball to Milwaukee. Bud led the group, which changed its name to "The Brewers" in 1965. The group arranged for the Chicago White Sox to play several regular season games at County Stadium in 1968, which proved to be a tremendous success.

After failing to purchase the White Sox in 1969 and witnessing the awarding of Major League expansion franchises to four other cities, Selig's efforts were finally rewarded on April 1, 1970, when a Seattle bankruptcy court awarded the Seattle franchise to Selig and his investors.

Bud has two daughters and two grand-daughters.

SAL BANDO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT — BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Bando, 51, is in his fourth year as the Milwaukee Brewers Senior Vice President—Baseball Operations. He now has the second longest tenure as the Brewers General Manager behind Harry Dalton who was in the role for 14 years. Bando's goal is to develop a strong farm system and provide a constant flow of talent to the big league level to ensure a competitive club in the American League on a yearly basis. He was named the Brewers General Manager on October 8, 1991. He previously had been a special assistant to the general manager with the Brewers since his retirement as a player following the 1981 season. Aside from working with the Brewers, Bando, along with Jon McGlocklin, former Milwaukee Bucks star, were founders of Bando-McGlocklin Capital Corporation. Their company provides real estate loans to businesses and is a licensed small business investment company (SBIC). Because of his full-time role with the Brewers, Sal is no longer involved in the company's day-to-day operations, but is on its' Board of Directors.

Bando initially joined the Brewers as a free agent on November 16, 1976, following eleven seasons as the Oakland Athletics All-Star third baseman and emotional leader. He played five seasons with the Brewers, batting .250 with 50 home runs and 243 RBI in 551 games. He hit 17 homers in each of his first two seasons and drove in 82 and 78 runs, respectively, in that same span. In 1978, he batted .285, his second highest career batting average. Ironically, in 1981, his final season, he played only 32 games, but became the regular third baseman in the pennant drive and batted .294 in the post-season.

While a member of the A's, "Captain Sal" had an outstanding career, playing a major role in Oakland's three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74. Sal still ranks as Oakland's All-Time leader in games played (1410) and RBIs (789), while ranking second in extra base hits (422), at bats (4991) and total bases (2107) and third in runs (725).

Bando attended Arizona State University, where he was a standout third baseman before being drafted by the Kansas City Athletics in 1965. His brother, Chris, also starred at ASU, played with the Cleveland Indians and is currently a manager at New Orleans of the American Association in the Brewers farm system.

Actively involved in the Milwaukee community, Bando is a member of the Boys and Girls Club and a member of the Advisory Board of the Wisconsin Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Sal and his wife, Sandy, are Co-Chairpersons for the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund, the Brewers official charity.

Born Salvatore Leonard Bando in Cleveland, Ohio, on February 13, 1944, Sal and his family reside in Mequon. Sal and Sandy have three sons. Sal, Jr., 24, attended Oklahoma State and was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1993. Sonny, 21, is a senior at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Stefano, 15, is a freshman at Marquette High School.

FRED STANLEY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Stanley, 47, is in his fourth season as the Brewers Director of Player Development. His farm clubs had the third highest winning percentage of all clubs last year (.544, 372-312). Fred has built a solid staff at the minor league level which emphasizes player development as well as building a winning mentality. Since 1990, Milwaukee has the best record of all clubs at the minor league level with a .551 winning percentage (1874-1525). In 1992, Stanley's charges earned the presitigous TOPPS Organization of the Year Award at the Annual Winter Meeting in Louisville, Kentucky.

Before moving into the front office on October 15, 1991, Stanley spent the '91 season as the first infield coach in the club's history and was responsible for Milwaukee's considerable defensive improvement in 1991. The Brewers finished ninth with a .981 fielding mark, finishing with 118 errors, after finishing last with a .976 fielding mark and 149 errors in 1990.

Stanley returned to the front office for the fourth time in his career since retiring as a player following the 1982 season. Before coming to Milwaukee, he was the Coordinator of Minor League Instruction with the Seattle Mariners from 1989-90; the Director of Baseball Operations with the Houston Astros from 1986-88 and Director of Instruction with the Oakland Athletics from 1983-85.

Stanley played 14 seasons in the major leagues with Seattle (1969), Milwaukee (1970), Cleveland (1972), New York (1973-1980) and Oakland (1981-82) in the American League and San Diego (1972) in the National League. He participated in one Divisional Championship Series with the Athletics in 1981, four League Championship Series with the Yankees in 1976-80 and the Athletics in 1981 and three World Series with the Yankees in 1976-78.

A defensive specialist, he batted .216 in 815 major league games. Of his eight career home runs, two were for grand slams, one coming against the Brewers in 1973. Most of his career was spent as a middle infielder, but Stanley also played first base, third base and the outfield, while compiling a .972 lifetime fielding mark.

Stanley is a native of Farnhamville, Iowa and currently resides in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, with his wife, Lynn, daughter, Tracie, 23, and son, Brian, 20.

KEN CALIFANO

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Califano, 41, is now in his third season as the Brewers scouting director and is starting to amass talent in the Brewers minor league system. He was named the Brewers Director of Scouting on October 7, 1992.

Califano is beginning his 15th season overall with the Brewers organization, having initially joined the club as an area scout in 1981, a position he held for nine seasons. He also held the position of National Crosschecker for pitchers in 1985. He was promoted to Northeast Supervisor in 1990 and has also been East Coast Supervisor in 1991 and East Coast Supervisor—Northern Region in 1992.

In his position as Director of Scouting, Califano is responsible for the researching, identifying and recommending of amateur players for the club through an effective scouting staff. He also assists in the drafting and signing of the college, junior college, high school, semi-pro and other amateur players for the organization, while scheduling the scouting staff to ensure that all prospects are observed and evaluated. In 1994, Califano and his scouting staff had the fourth choice overall in the annual June Free Agent Draft and selected Arizona State third baseman Antone Williamson who should be a future big league star. It was the highest draft choice Milwaukee has had since 1985 when the club selected B.J. Surhoff with the first overall choice.

In 1993, Califano's draft received a "B" grade from Baseball America magazine, the highest mark given to a single club. The Brewers also signed their top 10 draft picks from the '93 draft providing quality talent for the future.

Califano was an area scout with the California Angels from 1978-80 before joining the Brewers. He spent five seasons in professional baseball as a lefthanded pitcher with the Baltimore Orioles (1973-75) and the Angels (1976-77).

Califano was born on August 24, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from Milford Mill High School in Baltimore in 1971 and attended Essex Community College the following year. He was selected in the 21st round of the 1972 June Free Agent Draft by Baltimore.

Ken and his wife, Laurie, have a daughter, Kerri, 9, and son, D.J., 6. They currently live in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

TOM GAUSDEN

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION AND HUMAN RESOURCES

Tom Gausden enters his fourth season with the Milwaukee Brewers and his second as the the club's Director of Administration and Human Resources.

He originally joined the Brewers as their Director of Player Negotiations on December 9, 1991, the first person in club history to occupy such a position.

The 42-year old Gausden reports to Brewers President & Chief Executive Officer Allan H. (Bud) Selig and is directly responsible for handling all player contract negotiations and salary arbitration hearings for the club. He is also responsible for directing the club's Human Resources Department.

Before joining the Brewers, Gausden was Senior Manager—Employee Relations at the Wisconsin Electric Power Company (WEPCO), having been with the company since 1979. Gausden was a key member of management's negotiating team in collective bargaining agreements for WEPCO and was also the company's spokesperson in many of those negotiations.

Gausden, born on August 26, 1952 in McHenry, Illinois, graduated from Marian Central Catholic High School in Woodstock, Illinois in 1970. An outstanding prep athlete, he excelled on the gridiron, being named to the Chicago Tribune Prep All-Star Football Team, as well as All-Conference in 1969-70 as a wide receiver. He also earned two letters in baseball.

He was a 1974 graduate of Marquette University and a 1977 graduate of Marquette's Law School. Upon graduation from Law School, he became an associate at the New York office of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius which is also the firm of Chuck O'Connor, General Counsel of the Player Relations Committee. While an associate at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, and as an attorney with WEPCO, Gausden handled many labor arbitration cases.

Gausden and his wife, Ginny, have four children, son, Brian, 17, and three daughters, Lindsay, 14, Lauren, 12 and Beth, 8. They reside in Mequon, Wisconsin.

ON THE AIR

Bob Uecker Celebrating 25 Colorful Years As "The Voice of The Brewers"

After celebrating 25 years of American League baseball in Milwaukee in 1994, the Brewers recognize another quarter of a century accomplishment.

This season, Bob Uecker, the illustrious "Voice of the Brewers," will commemorate his silver anniversary of broadcasting major league baseball for his hometown. Uecker, along with Pat Hughes, return in force to do play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker is in his 16th season as the club's number one announcer. Bob is well-respected in the industry, earning Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career.

"I can't begin to say how fortunate I am," Uecker said. "My baseball career has certainly been a dream for me. Not only have I had the privilege to play professionally but also to broadcast this great game. I'm sure it would please anyone to say that. But I feel fortunate because I was able to play and broadcast for my hometown, Milwaukee. That's more than anyone could ask.

"To be born and raised in Milwaukee, to play baseball and to broadcast games here . . . what a thrill," Uecker added. "I've been in this game for 38 years—25 as the Brewers play-by-play announcer—and it still amazes me that this organization is a quarter of a century old. I suppose, my career as a broadcaster parallels the growth of this franchise. That is why I am lucky."

A 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, altered Bob's life. "Al Hirt is really the person responsible for my first appearance on the Tonight Show," Uecker explained. "He had opened a small night club in Atlanta and he had asked me to come up on stage." Hirt was so impressed he arranged an appearance for Bob on the Tonight Show, starring Johnny Carson.

Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 80 appearances before the Late Night host retired in 1992. "I enjoyed being around the people on the Tonight Show," Uecker said. "They were very friendly and I truly enjoyed my relationship with Johnny Carson. It certainly gave me tremendous exposure."

Uecker became a national celebrity. ABC Network took advantage of Uecker's popularity. He made appearances on the "Superstars" and "The Midnight Special" which opened the door for more elaborate appearances.

"Dick Ebersol, a very bright young executive with ABC went on to produce NBC Saturday Night Live," Uecker said. "Through our friendship, I was able to host that show.

"To do those kind of shows, which I enjoyed watching on television, I think they're great, and to be good enough to be accepted to that kind of fraternity where people know they can set you up for situation, that you're not embarrassed to say things, you're not embarrassed to poke fun at yourself, as long as it makes people laugh."

The snowball continued to roll for Bob. Because of his experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television, Uecker gained national recognition as a play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and World Series.

A versatile talent, Uecker credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Bob launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere" which put 100 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Bob was type cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League" filmed at County Stadium, and stole the show in the sequel, "Major League II."

Uecker's accomplishments weren't limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the majors, Bob authored a book entitled Catcher In the Wry, a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee-Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

With all his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. He lent his services in support of several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, Make-A-Wish Foundation and Big Brothers/ Big Sisters. In addition, he's an advocate for such organizations as cystic fibrosis, heart disease and the Wisconsin Department of Tourism.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters' Association Hall of Fame.

"I love Milwaukee," said Uecker, who with his wife, Judy, make their home in Menomonee Falls. "I've had so many great times here. I've had the privilege to work for an organization that has been good to me. It's not only the players and management, but also the front office, the day-to-day people. And where would we be without the fans?

"I'm thankful, each and everyday, that I've had the privilege to be around this game. I love baseball and everything and everyone associated with it."

RADIO INFORMATION

PAT HUGHES

RADIO ANNOUNCER

Pat Hughes is in his 12th season broadcasting Milwaukee Brewers Baseball with Bob Uecker on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network. With WTMJ as the flagship station, the Brewers will once again have nearly 50 stations throughout Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan carrying all 162 regular season games.

The Hughes and Uecker duo has worked well in the broadcast booth since 1984 with Pat adding a skillful and knowledgeable interpretation of Brewers action and Bob injecting his unique humor and insight of the game.

Hughes' background is quite extensive in network and cable coverage. Pat, who earned the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year Award three straight years (1990, '91 and '92), worked for ESPN and USA Cable Sports Networks covering a variety of sporting events prior to joining the Brewers.

Pat handled the play-by-play for the minor league Columbus Clippers of the International League and San Jose Missions of the California League. In addition, he briefly worked with the Minnesota North Stars of the National Hockey League preparing pregame and post-game shows.

Hughes also worked as a sports director for Warner Amex Cube of Columbus, Ohio and at Gill Cable (The Sports Channel) of San Jose, California.

During the off-season, Hughes keeps himself busy hosting a weekly sports call-in radio show, "Talkin' Baseball," WTMJ's hot-stove league program. He also brought the state public high school football championships into Wisconsin homes on television for the first time in 1993. In 1992, Pat announced Great Midwest Conference basketball telecasts on a regional television network. He was also the radio play-by-play announcer of Marquette University basketball games on a local radio station in 1991. Last year, Hughes handled play-by-play for the University of Wisconsin basketball program on Raycom Sports.

Born in Tucson, Arizona and raised in San Jose, California, Pat, his wife, Trish, and their daughters, Janell and Amber, make their home in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

KENT SOMMERFELD

RADIO PRODUCER

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 10th season as the Producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, Kent has had a wide range of experience in the broadcasting field.

He has also been the radio producer / director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990.

Kent attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Kent was the sports director of Cable TV 6, a wing of the Whitewater's cable system as well as the host of "Sports Chat", a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

He has also worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the Midwest. Kent also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas as a sports / news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Kent attended Brookfield Central High School. He and his wife, -eleni-, have a son, Peter, and reside in the Milwaukee area.

DID YOU KNOW . . . The All-Time Milwaukee attendance mark was set in 1983 with 2,397,131 fans.

1995 BREWERS RADIO NETWORK

Forty-three markets throughout Wisconsin and Michigan will carry Milwaukee Brewers Baseball in 1994. Once again, WTMJ Radio 620 (AM), in Milwaukee, will be the Brewers flagship station. Considered the sports broadcasting leader in Wisconsin, WTMJ Radio is also the flagship station for the Milwaukee Bucks basketball team and the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. All 162 regular season games and any post-season games the Brewers may play this year will be carried, as well as 18 spring training games.

TELEVISION INFORMATION

JIM PASCHKE

TELEVISION ANNOUNCER

Jim Paschke, who had handled the Brewers play-by-play duties from 1987-91, returns to Brewers baseball in the booth in 1995.

Paschke, the Milwaukee Bucks television play-by-play man for the past nine years, has a strong background, not only in the Milwaukee area, but on a national front, handling sideline analysis in the defunct United States Football League for ABC Sports Network and CART-ASA-NASCAR auto racing.

A versatile talent, Paschke, broke into the business in 1973 at KNIA-Radio in Knoxville, Iowa. He began his play-by-play career with high school football and basketball and later at Central College of Pella, Iowa. In addition, he handled the Iowa State Boys' High School Basketball Tournament.

Paschke went on to KTIV-TVin Sioux City, Iowa and WRAU-TV in Peoria, Illinois before moving to Madison's WMTV where he handled the play-by-play duties for the Wisconsin Badgers football and basketball programs.

In 1980, he joined WITI-TV 6 in Milwaukee as a sportscaster. He also got an opportunity to do play-by-play for the Milwaukee Admirals of the International Hockey League and for Marquette University basketball. He also called games on radio for the Beloit Brewers, Milwaukee's Class A affiliate in the Midwest League in 1992.

Paschke, who co-hosts WITI-TV 6's Emmy Award winning "Talking Sports" on Sunday night's, was honored by the Badger Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television as the 1985 Newscaster of the Year. He also was a four-time United Press International and a two-time Milwaukee Press Club award winner for producing the Best TV Sports Report when he was at TV 6.

A native of Bloomington, Minnesota, he attended the University of Minnesota and the Brown Institute in Minneapolis. Jim and his wife, Debbie, have a son, Michael and reside in Grafton, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

TELEVISION ANNOUNCER

After spending eight seasons as a major league catcher for the Milwaukee Brewers and California Angels, Bill Schroeder finds himself back in the big leagues as the color commentator on Brewers television broadcasts.

This is Schroeder's first experience in the television booth, but he is quite familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" on WTMJ-Radio last year.

After his playing career concluded in 1990, Schroeder became a stockbroker for Paine Webber in the Milwaukee area. In addition, he conducts the annual Bill Schroeder Celebrity Fall Golf Classic at the Americana in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin for the benefit of the American Cancer Society.

A lifetime .240 hitter, Schroeder enjoyed a career best .332 batting average in 1987. As an intricate member of Team Streak, Bill caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987 in the midst of the Brewers major league record tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Later that season, Schroeder had his finest moment. On June 14, before family and friends at New York's Yankee Stadium, he collected four hits including a game winning two-run homer off ace Dave Righetti.

In 1988, he was named the recipient of the Athletes For Youth Good Guy Award while in 1984, he earned the club's Unsung Hero Award.

Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School in Princeton, New Jersey, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and '79.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland and raised in Princeton, Bill was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990. He and his wife, Donna, have two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory and a son, Billy and reside in Hales Corners, Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS
RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

44 — HANK AARON—Hammerin' Hank had his famous number "44" retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played baseball in Milwaukee from 1954 through 1965 with the Braves and in 1975 and '76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a record 755 home runs. He was the National League's MVP in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. Aaron also hit 40-or-more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100-or-more runs 16 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

34 — ROLLIE FINGERS—The man who made the Handlebar Mustache famous had his number "34" retired on August 9, 1992 in ceremonies at County Stadium. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the games first relief ace. Fingers also won both the Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

19 — ROBIN YOUNT—The Kid had his legendary number 19 retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers from 1974-93 breaking into the big leagues at the tender age of 18. Yount won Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and '89. He became the 17th player in baseball history to record 3,000 career hits when he accomplished the feat on September 9, 1992 against the Cleveland Indians at County Stadium. Yount will be eligible to go into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1999.

THE BREWERS LOGO

On January 15, 1994, the Milwaukee Brewers unveiled their first new logo since the 1978 season. In a ceremony at the BrewersFest fan convention, new uniforms and accessories including the modern, yet old-fashioned logo were presented to Brewers fans. The development of the new logo began in November of 1992 when the Brewers approached Major League Baseball Properties Design Services about creating a "new look" as the Brewers approach the 21st century. The two parties worked diligently through the summer of 1993 and the result is a logo which will be worn with pride by Brewers players, coaches and fans for years to come.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Bob Betts, is in his 20th season as the Brewers Public Address Announcer. Bob has announced 1,476 games as the Brewers Public Address announcer. Born and raised in Iowa, Bob has been in broadcasting for most of his adult life, coming to Milwaukee in 1964. He worked at several local radio stations as well as recording commercials. Most recently, he was the General Manager at WMSE-FM in Milwaukee before retiring late in 1994. He and his wife, Rita, live in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. They have three children: Jim of Tampa, Julie of New York and John of Des Moines.

Handling press room and service room hospitality duties in 1995 will be Marty Wellskopf and Dick Collenburg. Wellskopf will return for his 18th season serving the media. He resides in Wauwatosa. Collenburg is entering his fifth season with the Brewers. He and his wife, Pat, reside in Milwaukee. Pinch-hitting occasionally will be the venerable Ed Wellskopf, who entered semi-retirement after the 1990 season. Ed is a press box veteran dating back to the Milwaukee Braves days. He and his wife, Dorothy, live in West Allis.

FACTS ABOUT COUNTY STADIUM

The site for County Stadium was officially selected on January 11, 1949, with the initial construction beginning on October 19, 1950. The stadium's original seating capacity of 28,111 permanent seats and 7,900 portable seats had a total capacity of 36,011 for the stadium's first event: an exhibition baseball game between the Milwaukee Braves and Boston Red Sox on April 6, 1953.

On October 6, 1953, the construction of additional permanent seating was approved, increasing the capacity to 43,394 for the 1954 baseball season. The outfield wall was constructed in 1961 and permanent bleachers were added in centerfield during the 1961 season. In 1962, the moving ramps were installed and in 1964, improvements for television and photographic facilities and the erection of temporary bleachers were completed, bringing the total number of bleacher seats to 10,591.

Additional improvements included a remodeled football pressbox in 1972; a new lighting system in 1973; additional seating (3,400) in 1974; a remodeled baseball pressbox in 1974; and additional seating (4,400) in 1975, bringing the capacity to the present 53,192.

In addition, the Milwaukee Brewers built a new electronic scoreboard in April, 1980 and an outdoor scoreboard in April, 1984, both of which were donated to Milwaukee County. The most recent addition occurred in 1986, when permanent cement bleachers were constructed.

THE CAP FUND
Official Charity of the Milwaukee Brewers

The Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund, official charity of the Milwaukee Brewers, stresses the importance of preventing child abuse.

Since its beginning in 1987, the CAP Fund has been unlike any other initiative. Funding innovative, primary child abuse prevention programs throughout Wisconsin, the CAP Fund exists to support Wisconsin's children, parents and families. To date, the CAP Fund has granted over $1.3 million to 90 non-government community-based prevention programs. These programs focus on specific ways to help through parenting programs, in-home parent aide support, nurturing programs for preschool children and their parents, support groups, and educational information about prevention.

By increasing awareness, education and support, programs supported by the CAP Fund are safeguarding thousands of Wisconsin's children every year.

THE HUTCH AWARD

Bill Wegman, who was one of the top comeback stories after missing most of the 1989-90 seasons with arm problems, was named the recipient of the Hutch Award in 1991, which goes to the player who overcomes a form of physical adversity to prolong or restore his career. Criteria for the voting by a panel of major league writers and broadcasters says the award goes to a player who best exemplifies the character, dedication and competitive spirit of Fred Hutchinson, former Cincinnati field boss. Hutchinson, who also managed the Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Cardinals following an 11 year pitching career, died of cancer on November 12, 1964 while managing the Reds. Wegman was the 27th player honored since the award was first established in 1965. Among the past winners are former Brewer, Paul Molitor (1987), and Hall of Famers Mickey Mantle (1965), Sandy Koufax (1966), Carl Yastrzemski (1967), Al Kaline (1969), Willie Stargell (1978), Lou Brock (1979) and Johnny Bench (1981).

MEDICAL AND CLUBHOUSE STAFF

MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Sullivan, 47, has been a team physician for the Milwaukee Brewers since 1981. He is the club's orthopaedic surgeon. Sullivan did his undergraduate work at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California, graduating in 1969. He then earned his medical degree from the Medical College of Wisconsin in 1974. Sullivan performed an internship at Milwaukee County General Hospital in 1974-75. During his residence period, Sullivan worked at the Medical College of Wisconsin and a variety of affiliated hospitals in the Milwaukee area before going into private practice in 1979 with the Milwaukee Orthopaedic Group, Ltd. He is currently a clinical instructor at the Medical College, Vice Chief of Staff at Sinai Samaritan Medical Center and a member of the Board of Directors at the Competitive Edge Sports Medicine Clinic. Sullivan was born on March 4, 1947 in Boston, Massachusetts. He and his family live in River Hills.

DR. DREW PALIN

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Palin, 43, is in his second season on the Brewers medical staff in 1995. He is a familiar face in the Milwaukee medical scene as he is the founder of Competitive Edge Health Services, a sports rehabilitation clinic which has been the rehab home of several Brewers players since opening in 1987. Born in Pasadena, California in 1951, Dr. Palin graduated from Stanford University in 1974 and the Mayo Medical School in Rochester, Minnesota in 1981. He and his wife, Alice, reside in Milwaukee with their five children, sons Drew, Tyler, Beau and Ian and a daughter, Holly.

DR. JOHN MIDTLING

TEAM PHYSICIAN — MEDICAL

Midtling, 44, is in his second season as a team physician with the Milwaukee Brewers. He is professor and chairman of the Department of Family Medicine at the Medical College of Wisconsin. Midtling founded the primary care sports medicine program at the Medical College in 1991 and has provided medical coverage for the Milwaukee Ballet since 1990. A Wisconsin native, Dr. Midtling graduated from the University of Minnesota School of Medicine in 1976. He completed his internship and residency at the University of Minnesota in 1979. Prior to returning to Wisconsin in 1989, he was on the faculty of the University of California, San Francisco School of Medicine and served as the Medical Director and Chief of Staff of a University of California affiliate hospital. He and his wife Kaye, and two daughters Anna and Emilie, reside in Chenequa.

DR. CRAIG YOUNG

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN — MEDICAL

Young, 32, is in his second season as a team physician with the Milwaukee Brewers. He is an assistant professor and the Medical Director of Sports Medicine at the Medical College of Wisconsin. Dr. Young was born in Inglewood, California and graduated from the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine in 1988. He completed a residency in family medicine at UCLA in 1991 and a sports medicine fellowship at the Cleveland Clinic in 1992. Dr. Young is board certified in both family practice and sports medicine. He is single and currently resides in Menomonee Falls.

JOHN ADAM

HEAD TRAINER

Adam, 40, is in his 15th season as the Milwaukee Brewers trainer. Before joining the Brewers organization in 1978 as a minor league trainer, Adam was a sixth round draft choice in 1972 as a pitcher in the Baltimore Orioles minor league system. He says his greatest thrills in baseball were the 1982 World Series and being the American League's trainer in the 1988 All-Star game. He was also an American League trainer for the 1994 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh. Adam was also the chairman of the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association auction in Milwaukee in 1993. Adam earned an A.A. Degree from East Los Angeles College and also graduated from Cal-State University at Dominguez Hills in 1981. Born in Gardena, California on June 20, 1954, John and his wife, Patty and their daughters, Jacqueline and Ellison, make their home in Chandler, Arizona during the off-season.

AL PRICE

ASSISTANT TRAINER

Price, 36, is in his eighth season as the Milwaukee Brewers assistant trainer and 16th season overall in the Brewers organization. He began as a trainer in the farm system in 1979, before spending his final four minor league seasons at Triple A with Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League ('84-86) and Denver of the American Association ('87). Price has a B.S. Degree in Physical Education from Washington State University in Pullman, Washington, where he also was a student trainer. He also did post graduate work at Western Washington University where he earned a Master of Education in Exercise Science. Al was born in Colfax, Washington on April 14, 1958. He and his wife, Debbie, live in Bellingham, Washington during the off-season.

JOHN REWOLINSKI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Rewolinski, 34, is in his second season as the Brewers Strength and Conditioning Coach. He will also work with the Brewers minor league players in 1995. He joins the Brewers after spending five years as the Fitness and Rehabilitation Coordinator at the Southridge Athletic Club where he earned the respect and recommendation of many professional athletes. John has also worked as the Strength Coach for the Royal Saudi Air Force in Saudi Arabia as a member of the United States Sports Academy. In that role, he helped improve the motor skills of the Air Force. John also was the coach of the Saudi Air Force Weightlifting Team which took second place in the Saudi Arabian Military Games. He graduated from Milwaukee's Hamilton High School in 1978 and from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee with a degree in Allied Health in 1985. John was born on October 11, 1960. He is single and resides in Milwaukee.

TONY MIGLIACCIO

EQUIPMENT & CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Migliaccio, 32, is in his 10th year as the Brewers Equipment Manager. Tony began his baseball career as a batboy in 1978. He became the Brewers assistant clubhouse manager in 1982 and remained in the position through 1985 when he became the equipment manager. Migliaccio is a graduate of Milwaukee's Pius XI High School where he played baseball. He has an Associate Degree from Central Arizona College. He also attended Arizona State University and the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee. Tony was born in Milwaukee on December 17, 1962.

JIM KSICINSKI

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Ksicinski, 48, has been the Brewers visiting clubhouse manager since the club arrived in Milwaukee in 1970. He originally started in baseball in 1963 as a batboy/clubhouse attendant in the visiting clubhouse with the Milwaukee Braves. Jim graduated in 1964 from St. John's Cathedral High School in Milwaukee where he played basketball and football. He graduated from Dominican College in Racine, Wisconsin in 1968 with a bachelors degree in business administration. At Dominican, he was a Little College Honorable Mention All-American in basketball where he was the school's all-time leading scorer. He was born in Milwaukee on November 4, 1946. Jim and his wife, Joanne, reside in Mequon.

IN THE BIG INNING

The club record for runs in an inning is 13 on July 8, 1990 against the California Angels. Milwaukee sent 18 batters to the plate in the inning as the club rallied from a 7-0 defecit to win 20-7. Here's the play-by-play from that historic inning.

Greg Minton pitching for the Angels. Greg Brock singled to right. Brock stole second with Rob Deer batting. Deer walked. B.J. Surhoff walked to load the bases. Mike Fetters came in to pitch for the Angels. Darryl Hamilton singled. Brock scored. Deer advanced to third. Surhoff advanced to second. Bill Spiers singled to right. Deer and Surhoff scored. Hamilton advanced to third. Spiers stole second with Jim Gantner batting. Gantner doubled to left. Hamilton and Spiers scored. Gary Sheffield singled to left-center. Gantner scored. Robin Yount walked. Mark Eichhorn came into pitch for the Angels. Dave Parker struck out. Brock singled to center. Sheffield scored. Yount advanced to second. Deer popped out to third base. Surhoff walked to load the bases. Hamilton hit a grand slam. Yount, Brock and Surhoff all scored. Spiers doubled to right-center. Gantner walked. Sheffield singled to right. Spiers scored. Gantner advanced to third. Yount singled to center. Gantner scored. Sheffield advanced to second. Mike Felder ran for Yount. Parker popped out to third.

In 1994, Milwaukee scored 10 runs in the 8th inning of a 12-4 win at Detroit on August 8. 14 batters came to the plate. Here's the play-by-play from that game.

Tim Belcher pitching for the Tigers. Troy O'Leary flied out to center. Jeff Cirillo walked. Jose Valentin walked. Jody Reed singled to left. Cirillo scored. Valentin moved to second. Greg Vaughn popped to third. Kevin Seitzer doubled to left-center. Valentin and Reed scored. Dave Nilsson was intentionally walked. John Jaha homered to right. Seitzer and Nilsson scored. Joe Boever came in to pitch. Turner Ward singled to right. O'Leary singled to center. Ward advanced to second. Cirillo homered to left-center. Ward and O'Leary both scored. Valentin homered to right. Reed singled to center. Bill Spiers pinch-ran at first. Vaughn struck out.

10 Runs, 8 Hits, 0 Errors, 1 Left On Base.

DID YOU KNOW . . . On August 29, 1992, the Brewers stole a club record 8 bases against the Toronto Blue Jays, including 3 by rookie Pat Listach, which gave him a club record 47 for the season. He finished the year with 54 stolen bases.

MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY

AC Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint near the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; Shoulder separations occur at this joint.

Abcess - An infection which produces pus.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament - A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Arteriogram - A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and / or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope - An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy - A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Avulsion - The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Bone Scan - An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bursa - A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur. This minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and a bone.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and may contain ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance which allows joint surfaces to glide over each other and prevents two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan (Computerized Axial Tomography) - Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cervical Vertebrae - Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Chondromalacia - Softening and cracking of joint cartilage. Most common in the cartilage behind the kneecap (chondromalacia patella).

Clavicle - Collarbone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Costochondral - Cartilage that connects the bones of the ribcage from the sternum.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Deltoid Ligament - Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle - Large muscle forming the shoulder cap.

Disc, Intervertebral - A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Dorsum - The back; the back surface of any part.

Electromyogram (EMG) - Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the side of the elbow frequently due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride - "Cold Spray", a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Eversion - Action of the ankle turning outward.

Femur - Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula - Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Fracture - Breach of continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Glenohumeral - The shoulder joint; consists of the glenoid socket, capsule, head of the humerus and labrum. A ball and socket joint.

Glenoid - Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Grade One Injury - A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or confused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury - A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, which causes appreciable limitation of function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury - A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly and in some cases totally torn or otherwise disrupted causing a loss of function.

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hamstring - Group of muscles that run from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee.

Hematoma - Mass produced by accumulations of blood.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotibial Band - A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the outer side of the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation - The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and / or loss of function.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.

Internal Rotation - Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule) - The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge structure which helps make the shoulder socket more stable.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Lesion - Wound, injury, or tumor. Anatomical or pathological abnormality.

Ligament - Band of the fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae - Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the dorsal vertebrae above and the sacrum below, forming the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Malleolus - Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus in the end of the fibula and the medial malleolus in the end of the tibia.

Medial - To the inside of the body.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of the knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage". There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals - Five bones of the hand between the wrist and fingers.

Metatarsals - Five bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of the muscles.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Overuse Syndromes - A result of repetitive stress to body structures.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon; also known as "jumpers knee".

Patellofemoral Joint - Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles - Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx - Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis - Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar fascia - A tight band of connective tissue beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - Fold of tissue in the joint lining.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament - A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament may necessitate reconstruction and require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" - A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Rotator Cuff - Comprised of the tendons of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome - A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm or more.

Sacrum - Vertebrae located in the back of the pelvis. Part of the lumbosacral and sacroiliac joints.

SC Joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collar bone with the sternum.

Scapula - Shoulder blade.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the back of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve - Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the lower back and thigh and lower leg; it is the largest and longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Spasm - Strong, involuntary muscle contractions; cramps.

Spondylitis - Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Sprain - Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum - The breast bone.

Steroids - Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances.

Strain - Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Superior - In anatomy, the upper of two parts; toward the top or above.

Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Tarsals - Group of seven bones of the back of the foot (calcaneus, talus, navicular, cuboid and three cuneiforms).

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The joint connecting the jaw to the skull.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and / or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon - Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Thoracic Vertrebrae - Group of twelve vertebrae located at the back of the chest.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones of the leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna - Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma - The cheekbone.

BASEBALL BASICS

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW

All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. However, if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m., it can be completed. Other curfew restrictions are contained in American League Regulation 3.4.

BATTING-PITCHING QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for the American League batting championship, a player must have 502 or more plate appearances. (This is equivalent to at least 3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games). Pitchers must work 162 or more innings to qualify for the earned run average title.

"BLOWN SAVE" DEFINITION

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAKS

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game. The designated hitter is locked into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game may be used defensively, but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR"

172 days constitute a full year in the major leagues.

EARNED-RUNS RULE

The determination of an earned-run is as follows: An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls; and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, the reliever could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

FIGURING BASEBALL STATISTICS

Batting Average—divide the total number of safe hits by the total times at bat.

Slugging Percentage—divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat.

Pitchers Earned Run Average—multiply the total earned runs by 9, and divide the result by the total number of innings pitched.

Fielding Percentage—divide the total putouts and assists by the total putouts, assists and errors.

Won-Loss Percentage—divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

On-Base Percentage—divide hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitcher by at-bats plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitcher and sacrifice flies (for purpose of this percentage ignore being awarded first base on interference or obstruction).

FIGURING MAGIC NUMBERS

To determine a team's Magic Number in the pennant race, compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

PLAYER LIMITS

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the championship season shall be 24.

REGULATION GAME

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because:

(1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or

(2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active player roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 24-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE

Saves shall be awarded to relief pitchers under the following criteria: Rule (10:20) tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least 1 inning; or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is 1 of the first 2 batsmen he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least 3 innings.

SCORING RULE — PINCH HITTERS

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up). A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

TIE GAME

A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

WILD CARD TEAMS

The team with the best record that has not won its division is eligible for the playoffs as the wild card team. In the American League Division Series, that club will play the division winner with the best record while the other two division winners will face each other in a best-of-five series with the winners advancing to the American League Championship Series.

DID YOU KNOW . . . On August 29, 1992, the Brewers set an American League record with 31 hits and 26 singles in a 22-2 trouncing of the Blue Jays. The Brewers also set a club record with 22 runs, 38 total bases and a 20-run winning margin.

HISTORY OF THE MILWAUKEE BREWERS

1970—Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., an organization formed by Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Edmund Fitzgerald several years earlier to return major league baseball to the city, the "Seattle Pilots" franchise was acquired on April 1st . . . "We're Big League Again" proclaims a banner headline in the Milwaukee Sentinel . . . Team renamed "Brewers", a popular name in Milwaukee and a tribute to the city's long association with the Brewing industry . . . The Brewers, managed by Dave Bristol, acquired Russ Snyder and Max Alvis in their first trade on April 4th . . . Brewers' first game played at County Stadium on April 7th before 37,237 enthusiastic fans as Lew Krausse drops a 12-0 decision to Andy Messersmith and the Angels . . . Opening Day lineup as follows: Tommy Harper, 2B; Russ Snyder, CF; Mike Hegan, 1B; Danny Walton, LF; Steve Hovley, RF; Jerry McNertney, C; Max Alvis, 3B; Ted Kubiak, SS; and Lew Krausse, P . . . John O'Donoghue defeats the White Sox in Chicago on April 11th for the team's first win ever . . . Bob Bolin fans 10 as the Brewers earn their first home win on May 6th over the Red Sox . . . Davey May was acquired from the Orioles in June . . . Kubiak drives in 7 runs, still a team record, at Fenway Park on July 18th . . . 69-year-old Milt Mason, as "Bernie Brewer", goes into a trailer atop the stadium scoreboard in late June, vowing not to descend until the team draws a home crowd of 40,000, which occurs on August 16th . . . Harper becomes only the fifth player in history to hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases during the same season with totals of 31 and 38, respectively . . . Walton, an early season sensation, becomes the hero of the "Brew Crew", a young, enthusiastic group of fans who populate the left field bleachers . . . Brewers draw 933,690 and finish tied for fourth with a 65-97 record.

1971—Famous Frank "Trader" Lane replaces Marvin Milkes as Director of Baseball Operations . . . Team wins first season opener on April 7th, a 7-2 win at Minnesota behind Marty Pattin . . . Brewers defeat the Angels in a rare Saturday afternoon opener at home, 4-3, before 40,566 . . . Bill Parsons is named Rookie Pitcher of the Year . . . Ken Sanders appears in 83 games, winning 7 and saving 31 others and is named Fireman of the Year by The Sporting News . . . Sanders, Marty Pattin, Skip Lockwood and Jim Slaton lead a staff which pitches 23 shutouts, but the team batting average of .227 is the lowest in the majors as the Brewers finish in the cellar with a 69-92 mark . . . Johnny Briggs is acquired from the Phillies in May . . . Brewers make a blockbuster deal during the World Series trading Pattin, Tommy Harper, Lew Krausse, and minor leaguer Pat Skrable to Boston for George Scott, Jim Lonborg, Ken Brett, Joe Lahoud, Billy Conigliaro, and Don Pavletich . . . With the shift of the Washington franchise to Texas, the Brewers move to the Eastern Division for the 1972 season.

1972—Brewers complete worst season ever, finishing in the basement with a 65-91 record . . . A players strike, which delays the opening of the season, unusually bad summer weather, and the performance of the team all contribute to a record low attendance of 600,400 . . . Dave Bristol is fired in late May . . . Del Crandall, a popular ex-player in Milwaukee, takes over . . . Team involved in a 22-inning marathon against the Twins on May 12th, a game in which Infielder Bob Heise bats a record 10 times . . . Skip Lockwood hurls a 1-hitter against the Yankees on May 30th in Crandall's managerial debut . . . Jim Wilson is appointed Director of Baseball Operations in October, replacing Frank Lane . . . Don Money, Bill Champion,and John Vukovich are acquired in the off-season from Philadelphia.

Pedro Garcia

1973—Season opener is delayed 4 days after a 13-inch snow storm blankets the city . . . In the most exciting season to date, the Brewers put together a 10-game winning streak in June, copping 15 of 16 during this span and occupying first place as late as June 19th . . . "Even the Rain Can't Stop the Brewers" trumpets a Journal headline after a rain-shortened win during the streak . . . Team's new winning ways electrify Brewerland as Milwaukee cracks the million mark for the first time with a season total of 1,092,158 . . . On a night when the Brewers win their 10th straight, Milwaukee fans so rattle Don Newhauser with their wild cheering that the Boston hurler walks in three straight runs . . . That game marks the beginning of the boisterous, deafening verbal attacks on opposing pitchers for which County Stadium crowds are famous . . . New Bernie Brewer, Bonnie Brewer and organist Frank Charles make their debuts as a fun atmosphere pervades County Stadium . . . Spirited play of rookies Darrell Porter, Bob Coluccio and Pedro Garcia, who finishes second to the Orioles' Al Bumbry in the Baseball Writers Association of America rookie balloting, spark team . . . Davey May and George Scott both hit over .300 . . . May has a 24-game hitting streak . . . Johnny Briggs collects 6 hits at Cleveland on August 4th . . . Jim Colborn, who hurls a 1-hitter against Texas becomes the Brewers first 20-game winner . . . After the Brewers defeat his Tigers, Manager Billy Martin makes his famous remark: "If the Brewers can win with what they've got, I'm a Chinese aviator!" . . . Milwaukee, which is only one game below .500 on August 31, is hurt by a lack of consistent relief pitching and September swoon, finishes with a 74-88 mark.

1974—Record of 76-86, the best to date, but inability of veterans, George Scott, Davey May, Jim Colborn and second year men Bob Coluccio, Darrell Porter and Pedro Garcia to duplicate '73 performances hurt . . . Tom Murphy becomes the bullpen ace with 10 wins and 20 saves . . . Robin Yount becomes the Brewers' regular shortstop at 18 years of age . . . Don Money plays 87 consecutive errorless games at third . . . Popular Mike Hegan is reacquired . . . Deron Johnson is purchased from the A's in June . . . In the most exciting game of the season, a roaring, cheering County Stadium crowd so unnerves Rollie Fingers that the relief ace allows the game winning runs in the 9th, prompting Oakland announcer Monte Moore to wildly exclaim as the winning run crosses the plate: "The Crowd did it! The Crowd did it!" . . . Royals' Steve Busby hurls a no-hitter at County Stadium on June 19th . . . Jim Baumer is appointed the Director of Baseball Operations, replacing Jim Wilson, who takes over as Chief of Major League Scouting Bureau.

Henry Aaron

1975—Baseball's home run king Hank Aaron returns to Milwaukee . . . 48,160 salute Aaron on "Welcome Home, Henry" Day . . . Aaron's presence and good start by team help increase season attendance to 1,213,357 . . . Brewers finish at 68-94 . . . Milwaukee hosts the Major League All-Star Game as 51,480 see the NL win, 6-3 . . . Boston's Rick Wise hurls 8 & 2/3 innings of no-hit ball on July 2nd at County Stadium before George Scott ends Wise's dream with a homer . . . The Boomer goes on to hit 36 homers and drive in 109 runs, the former tying him with Reggie Jackson for the HR title, the latter giving him the RBI crown . . . On the final day of the season, the Brewers announce that Del Crandall's contract would not be renewed.

1976—Alex Grammas is named manager because of "winning tradition" acquired from the World Champion Cincinnati Reds . . . Brewers finish in the cellar; however, with a 66-95 mark . . . Henry Aaron closes out his illustrious career with 10 homers . . . 40,283 turn out in September for Aaron night . . . Mike Hegan hits for the cycle against Detroit on Sept. 3 . . . Billy Travers, an All-Star, wins 15 games and Jerry Augustine is named to the All-Rookie Team . . . Looking for leadership in the off-season, the Brewers acquire Sal Bando in the first re-entry draft . . . George Scott and Bernie Carbo are traded to Boston for Cecil Cooper . . . Darrell Porter and Jim Colborn are dealt to the Royals . . . Pitcher Danny Frisella is killed in an off-season accident.

1977—Season begins with high hopes as Brewers win the Cactus League title and 11 games during April . . . Bumper crowd of 55,120, still a record, turns out for Opening Day in sunny 83 degree weather . . . Team finishes with a disappointing 67-95 mark . . . Don Money slams 25 homers and drives in 83 runs in best major league season . . . Cecil Cooper becomes the first .300 hitter in four years . . . Mike Caldwell is acquired in a June trade with Cincinnati for two minor leaguers . . . In November, the Brewers acquire Larry Hisle in the re-entry draft . . . Next day, in "Saturday Night Massacre", the team lets go Jim Baumer and Alex Grammas . . . Harry Dalton is named to replace Baumer and George Bamberger, pitching coach of the Orioles, is appointed field manager two months later . . . Brewers trade Jim Slaton to the Tigers for Ben Oglivie.

George Bamberger

1978—Brewers are the talk of the baseball world as they post a 93-69 record, fourth best in baseball and good enough for third in the tough AL East . . . Milwaukee batters hit three grand slams in sweeping the opening series against the Orioles . . . "Bambi's Bombers", a power-packed wrecking crew, leads the AL in homers with 173 and tops the loop in 6 other offensive categories . . . Brewers finish 10-5 against the World Champion Yankees, sweeping all 7 games in Milwaukee . . . In a memorable evening, the Brewers sweep a twi-night twin bill against the Bronx Bombers at County Stadium on June 28th behind route-going performances by Mike Caldwell and Jerry Augustine . . . Ten days later, the Brewers sweep a three game series against the Yanks with Hisle's game-winning homer off Rich Gossage on Saturday night being the highlight . . . Team wins 10 straight in June to make believers out of doubters . . . "Bring on the Red Sox, City is Ready", blares the Sentinel headline as the Brewers sell out for an August series against the Bosox in advance . . . Caldwell wins 22 games and becomes the first pitcher since Dean Chance in 1964 to blank the Yankees three times in one season . . . Moose Haas fans 14 Yankees in a single game . . . Brewers unveil new pinstripe uniforms and new team logo . . . Bud Selig is named Executive of the Year . . . George Bamberger is named Manager of the Year . . . Harry Dalton receives the General Manager of the Year Award . . . Paul Molitor is named the Rookie of the Year . . . Mike Caldwell is named Comeback Player of the Year . . . Robin Yount, Hisle, and Molitor are named to post-season All-Star teams . . . Don Money becomes the first Brewer ever voted into the starting lineup for the mid-season All-Star Game . . . Hisle and Lary Sorensen are also named to the squad . . . Brewers are named the top state sports story by AP and UPI . . . 1,601,406 pass through County Stadium turnstiles . . . Jim Slaton is reacquired in the re-entry draft.

1979—"Brewer Fever" sweeps the city and state as 1,918,343 fans stream into the stadium . . . Brewers finish in second place behind the Orioles with a 95-66 mark, the fourth best in baseball . . . "Bambi's Bombers" continue to bomb as Gorman Thomas is crowned the AL Home Run Champion with 45 round trippers . . . Ben Oglivie belts 29, Sixto Lezcano 28, and Cecil Cooper, 24 . . . Larry Hisle, injured most of the season, appears in only 26 games . . . Oglivie and Cooper each belt 3 homers in a single game . . . Cooper's third circuit clout is a game winner against the Yankees on July 27 off Gossage and 48,000 fans roar their approval in a curtain call . . . Paul Molitor hit .322 and collects a club record 16 triples . . . Cooper, Lezcano and Charlie Moore join Molitor in hitting .300 or better . . . Ten date homestand against the Yankees, Orioles and Red Sox totals 408,547 . . . Overall, the Brewers crack the 20,000 mark 43 times, 30,000 mark 25 times, the 40,000 base 12 times and the 50,000 plateau 4 times . . . Brewers streak of 213 straight non-shutout games broken on the final day of the season against the Twins . . . Brewers again named top state sports story by wire services . . . Brewers picked to win division in 1980 in several pre-season polls.

1980—The Brewers were set to challenge the rest of the Eastern Division when spring training opened in late February, however, no one expected to see Manager George Bamberger out of uniform and in the hospital. On March 6, Bambi suffered a mild heart attack, later requiring bypass surgery to correct his ailment . . . Bob "Buck" Rodgers assumed the role as acting manager until Bambi returned on June 6 . . . Opening Day was truly one to remember as Sixto Lezcano hit a ninth inning grand slam at County Stadium to lift the Brewers to a 9-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox before 53,313 jubilant fans . . . Injuries plagued the Brewers as pitcher Jim Slaton suffered shoulder problems, Larry Hisle really never recovered from a torn rotator cuff injury and Don Money sustained ligament damage to his right knee. Each would be lost for most of the season . . . A new scoreboard is unveiled at County Stadium, with capabilities to show instant replays, slow motion as well as animation . . . Numerous club and individual records are broken as Cecil Cooper batted .352, Ben Oglivie hit 41 home runs as a lefthander, which also tied him for the AL lead with New York's Reggie Jackson and Robin Yount collects 82 extra base hits, including 49 doubles, to mention a few . . . The club tops the major leagues with 203 homers, 774 runs, 2,535 total bases and a .448 slugging percentage, all Brewers records . . . Not since the 1948-'49 Boston Red Sox has a team produced three players with 100 or more RBI in two consecutive seasons, but the Brewers did. In 1979 Gorman Thomas (123), Cecil Cooper (106) and Sixto Lezcano (101) became the first Milwaukee trio to go over 100 RBI in a season. And this season, Cooper (122), Ben Oglivie (118) and Thomas (105) put the Brewers in the record books . . . Milestones were another special item for the Brewers—Sal Bando drove in his 1,000th RBI in his hometown of Cleveland on April 29; Cecil Cooper collected his 1,000th hit on July 21st in New York; Reggie Cleveland won his 100th game on July 25 in Baltimore; and probably the most remarkable feat of the year came on August 16, when Robin Yount became one of the youngest players to ever attain 1,000 hits. At the tender age of 24, Yount put his name along side such Hall of Fame notables as Ty Cobb and Al Kaline . . . The Brewers never reached their true potential, finishing a distant third in the East with an 86-76 mark, but they still managed to chalk up their third straight winning season . . . In an effort to improve the ball club, General Manager Harry Dalton wheels and deals at the annual winter meetings, trading with the St. Louis Cardinals for All-Star Catcher Ted Simmons, steady starter Pete Vuckovich and the all-time save leader in baseball, Rollie Fingers. He also picked up third baseman Roy Howell in the Free Agent Draft and later signed pitcher Randy Lerch, making the Brewers the team to beat in the East in 1981.

Rollie Fingers

1981—Nearly every major sports publication in America predicted that the New York Yankees would face its strongest challenge for the American League Eastern Division pennant in 1981 from the much improved Milwaukee Brewers. In the end, it appeared that the preseason pollsters were quite accurate . . . In a strike interrupted season, it came down to the first half-winners—New York—versus the second season winners—Milwaukee . . . The Brewers would finish the campaign with a 62-47 overall record (.569), helped along by the best mark in the league in the second half—31-22 (.585) . . . With Bob "Buck" Rodgers beginning his first full season as the Brewers skipper, the pressure of producing a winner in Milwaukee was on him . . . Rollie Fingers established himself from the outset, earning a save in the season opener against Cleveland before an American League 1981 season high of 71,067 fans at Cleveland Stadium . . . Ted Simmons' first hit in the league came the next day as it cleared the left field fence in the 8th inning . . . Despite a slow start, Pete Vuckovich not only goes on to top the Brewers pitching staff but also ranks among the league's best hurlers in '81 . . . It's Fingers who steals the spotlight in '81 . . . His performance is unmatched as he posts a 6-3 record, 1.04 ERA and a major league high 28 saves in 47 appearances . . . He is more impressive during the second season, notching a 5-1 mark, 0.72 ERA and 16 saves, being involved in 21 of the Brewers second half wins, including 12 of the final 15 . . . For his efforts, he becomes the first relief pitcher in major league history to win both the Cy Young Award and the Most Valuable Player Award in the same season . . . In addition, Rollie earns his 4th Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award, The Sporting News Fireman of the Year Award and the Joe Cronin Award for distinguished service . . . For the fifth straight season, Cecil Cooper batted well over .300, this time chalking up a .320 batting average . . . Coop also led the league with 35 doubles, the second time in the last three years he's topped the loop in that department . . . For the fourth straight year, Gorman Thomas hit 20 or more home runs, a club record, this time smacking 21 . . . He also hit a solid .259, his best average ever in the big leagues . . . While Fingers was outstanding in the bullpen, Pete Vuckovich was brilliant as a starter, nabbing a 14-4 record for a share of the top spot in the league in victories and a .778 winning percentage, the best among starters . . . Vuke accomplished the fine season by winning 8 straight games from May 5-June 11, tying a club record. He also set a club mark by winning 6 straight in May, the most wins in any given month . . . Defensively, the Brewers keystone combination of Robin Yount and Jim Gantner helped Milwaukee lead the AL with 135 double plays . . . Yount led all regular shortstops with a .985 fielding percentage . . . Gantner, playing in his first full season at second base, led all pivotmen with 94 double plays.

Robin Yount

1982—After 12 years, the uphill climb for Milwaukee paid off as 1982 became a banner year for the Brewers. Picked as the favorite to capture the American League Eastern Division, the Brewers matched that prediction on June 2 . . . That was when the Brewers rebounded from the second division and became a contender under new Manager Harvey Kuenn. Under the Brewers "only" batting coach, Milwaukee became known as "Harvey's Wallbangers", chalking up a 72-43 mark after June 2 and finishing with the best record in baseball at 95-67 . . . In June, the Brewers won 20 of 27 games and by July 3 had moved into a first place tie with the Boston Red Sox . . . In that span, the Brewers set an AL record and tied a major league mark by blasting 35 homers in 15 straight games . . . The most feared offensive lineup in baseball led the majors in eight batting departments including 216 homers, 891 runs, 843 RBI and 2,606 total bases . . . The Brewers were in first place in the East 80 games during the year, including the final 62 games . . . The Sporting News "Player of the Year" Robin Yount led the league in four areas: 210 hits, 367 total bases, .578 slugging percentage and 46 doubles, also earning the AL "Most Valuable Player" honor from the BBWAA . . . Pete Vuckovich was named the Cy Young Award Winner in the AL with an 18-6 record, helped along by two 8-game winning streaks during the course of the campaign . . . With the Brewers sweeping both major awards, coupled with the Rollie Fingers sweep in 1981, Milwaukee became the only AL team ever to sweep both awards two straight years . . . Other standouts during the year were: Paul Molitor who scored 136 runs, the most in baseball since Ted Williams scored 150 runs in 1949; Gorman Thomas, who slammed a league leading 39 homers; the threesome of Yount (210), Cecil Cooper (205) and Molitor (201) became the first teammates to finish 1-2-3 in hits since the 1915 Detroit Tigers . . . In pitching, besides Vuckovich's totals, Mike Caldwell finished with a 17-13 mark, Bob McClure posted a 12-7 record, Moose Haas registered an 11-8 record and newcomer Don Sutton, acquired in late August from Houston notched a 4-1 mark, but more impressively, won the season finale in Baltimore which gave the Brewers the Eastern Division Title . . . Defensively, the Brewers led the AL for the second straight year in double plays and Yount earned his first Gold Glove . . . For Milwaukee, the highlight of the year was playing California for the AL crown . . . After falling behind 2 games to none in the best of 5 series, the Brewers rallied to become the first team ever to win the League Championship Series after being down 0-2. The 3-2 ALCS victory gave the Brewers the AL pennant and a berth in the 79th World Series against National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals . . . It had been nearly a quarter of a century since Milwaukee had hosted the Fall Classic dating back to the Braves days . . . In an exciting series labeled the "Suds Series", the Brewers and Cardinals played the full 7 games with St. Louis earning the title "World Champions" . . . But in Milwaukee, the Brewers fans showed their loyalty by turning out by the thousands to greet their heroes home in a special ticker-tape parade downtown and at County Stadium.

1983—Set an all-time Milwaukee attendance mark as 2,397,131 fans went through the turnstiles . . . Attendance ranked behind the Los Angeles Dodgers and California Angels and ahead of New York Yankees and Montreal Expos . . . Season of injuries—Rollie Fingers and Pete Vuckovich lost during spring training, 8 different key players spent time on the disabled list, and another half-dozen missed games because of injuries . . . Despite this, Brewers had 6th straight winning season, maintaining their ranking with the 3rd best record in the majors over the past six seasons . . . Cecil Cooper, Ted Simmons, and Robin Yount ranked among league leaders offensively. Moose Haas, Jim Slaton and Pete Ladd among league pitching leaders . . . Cooper's 126 RBI set a new club record and tied with Jim Rice to lead the major leagues. Cooper also collected 1,500th career hit and hit over .300 for the 7th straight season . . . Simmons had best season as a Brewer, batting over .300 while driving in over 100 runs, a club record for catchers, also collecting 2,000th career hit . . . Haas led league with .813 winning percentage and tied club record with 8-game winning streak . . . Slaton set club record by winning 14 games in relief . . . Don Sutton gets 3,000th strikeout, 8th pitcher in major league history . . . Ben Oglivie, Jim Gantner, and Haas named Player of the Week . . . Cooper named twice . . . Cooper also named Player of the Month for July . . . Yount gets 1,500th career hit . . . Rene Lachemann named manager for 1984 . . . Jim Sundberg and Bobby Clark acquired in off-season deals.

1984—For the first time since 1977, the Milwaukee Brewers experienced a sub .500 campaign . . . Injuries to Paul Molitor, Chuck Porter and Rollie Fingers, to mention just a few, crippled the Brew Crew . . . Under first year manager Rene Lachemann, Milwaukee fell into the AL Eastern Division cellar with a 67-94 mark, a club record 36½ games behind the World Champion Detroit Tigers . . . Catcher Jim Sundberg was Milwaukee's lone representative at the All-Star Game played in San Francisco . . . Don Sutton tops pitching staff with a 14-12 record . . . He becomes the first pitcher in major league history to record at least 100 strikeouts in 19 consecutive seasons . . . Robin Yount led the club in virtually every offensive department, including a .298 average, 16 HRs, and for the fourth straight year, ranked among the top fielding shortstops in the league . . . In just 33 appearances, Fingers recorded 23 saves and upped his all-time leading save total to 324 and tied Sparky Lyle for the all-time high in the AL, each with 216 saves . . . The emergence of rookies such as Dion James, Bill Schroeder, Ray Searage, Doug Loman, and Jaime Cocanower give the Brewers a bright future . . . James finished the year batting .295; Schroeder clubbed 14 homers; Searage, in just 21 late season appearances, earned 2 victories and 6 saves while posting a 0.70 ERA; Loman drove in 12 runs and added a pair of homers, batting .276 in 23 late season games; and Cocanower won 8 games . . . In late September, Brewers Executive Vice President and General Manager Harry Dalton rehired George Bamberger as skipper of the 1985 Brewers . . . Although attendance figures dropped drastically from the previous season, Milwaukee's 1,608,509 total was the best for a 7th place club.

1985—Though the Brewers improved their ranking from 7th to 6th in the AL East Division from the previous campaign, the club suffered its second straight losing year—71-90

. . . Injuries once again took their toll on the club, sidelining Robin Yount, Cecil Cooper, Ben Oglivie, Chuck Porter and Randy Ready just to mention a few . . . Cecil Cooper and Paul Molitor were named to the All-Star team—for Cooper, it was his 5th invitation while Molitor, who participated in the mid-summer classic in his hometown (Minneapolis), was named to his second . . . Two rookies made impressive debuts: Pitcher Teddy Higuera topped the pitching staff with a 15-8 record, setting a club mark in victories by a rookie. He was named The Sporting News American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writers Association of America balloting for AL Rookie of the Year . . . Ernest Riles, called up in mid-May to replace Robin Yount at shortstop, finished 4th on the club with a .286 average and was named to the Topps All-Rookie squad and wound up 2nd runnerup in the BBWAA voting for Rookie of the Year . . . Paul Molitor, after missing most of the 1984 season following elbow surgery, returned to lead the club with a .297 batting average and finished second in the voting for AL Comeback Player of the Year honors . . . Pitcher Danny Darwin, despite posting a dismal 8-18 record, including a club record 10 straight losses, became the first Brewer to register a 1-hitter, 2-hitter and 3-hitter in the same season . . . Moose Haas became the first pitcher to 1-hit the New York Yankees in Yankee Stadium in 17 seasons . . . Attendance figures dropped for the second straight year—1,360,265—the lowest since 1977.

1986—The year began with advice to fans—"be patient". This edition of the Brewers was being called several names but all having basically the same meaning . . . The "Youth Movement" was underway with no fewer than 16 new faces on the 40-man roster . . . The pitching staff underwent the most drastic transformation—by season's end only Teddy Higuera would survive from the 1985 staff . . . Higuera would become the first 20-game winner for the Brewers since Mike Caldwell in 1978. Higuera's 20-11 mark made him the first Mexican born pitcher to win 20 games in the AL . . . Mark Clear and Dan Plesac the right / left handed stoppers in the bullpen, combined for a 15-12 record and 30 saves . . . Considered the biggest steal of the year, Rob Deer solidified the Brewers power failure of recent years by slamming 33 long balls and driving in 85 runs, tops on the club . . . Robin Yount leads the Brewers with a .312 average, collecting his 2,000th career hit on September 6 . . . Brewers wind up in 6th place, while home attendance dips to 1,265,041 . . . George Bamberger retires before the season ends and Tom Trebelhorn becomes the 5th manager in as many years.

Juan Nieves

1987—The Milwaukee Brewers entered the new season with a plan to record their first winning record in 4 years . . . They did better than that, winning more than 90 games for the first time since going to the World Series in 1982, only the 4th time in club history . . . Milwaukee was quickly named "Team Streak" for its brand of baseball in this season of surprises and hope . . . The Brewers jumped out to a major league record—tying 13-0 start and tied the AL record by posting a 17-1 record—the furthest into a season with just one setback . . . Along the way, Juan Nieves recorded the Brewers first no-hitter, that coming on April 15 at Baltimore, making him the first Puerto Rican born pitcher to do it in the majors . . . As quickly the Brewers enjoyed success, their fortunes turned in May, dropping a club record 12 straight games and falling out of first place on May 13 . . . The Brewers limped into the All-Star Break one game under .500, sending just one player to the mid-season classic, Dan Plesac, whose 18 saves topped the AL . . . Paul Molitor, who missed better than 40 games in the first half with hamstring problems, ignited the Brewers after the break . . . Molitor hit in 39 straight games immediately following the All-Star break, setting a club record and putting together the 5th best spree in modern day baseball, the longest in the AL since Joe DiMaggio set the major league mark with 56 straight games in 1941 . . . In the second game after the break, Dale Sveum hit 3 homers, including one from the right and one from the left side of the plate, only the second Brewer to ever do it . . . Robin Yount, who finishes the year with better than 100 RBI, the first Brewer to cross that plateau in four seasons, collects his 400th career double . . . Rob Deer, ties a major league record by hitting grand slam home runs in back to back games against Cleveland . . . Molitor scores in a club record 16 straight games, just 2 short of the major league mark held by Red Rolfe of the New York Yankees in 1939 . . . Teddy Higuera sets a club record by tossing 32 consecutive scoreless innings . . . During this period he pitched 3 straight shutouts . . . Higuera also wins a personal high 7 straight games; finishes with an 18-10 mark while setting a new standard, chalking up 240 strikeouts for the season . . . Sveum hits 25 homers, the most by a Brewers shortstop since Yount hit 29 during his MVP campaign of 1982 . . . Milwaukee finishes the year with a winning record against every AL East team, a club first . . . 1,909,244 fans watch the Brewers at County Stadium, the most since the Brewers set a franchise record of 2.4 million in 1983, the 4th best home attendance . . . The Brewers also set a new road attendance record, going over 1.9 million . . . The Brewers end the season strong, winning 10 of their last 14 games, good for third place in the rough Eastern Division with a 91-71 mark, their 4th best record ever . . . Brewers manager Tom Trebelhorn, a leading candidate for AL Manager of the Year, has the Brewers running like they never had before . . . The club set a new mark with 176 steals in the season . . . Paul Molitor sets a new mark with 45 steals, including swiping second, third, and home in the same inning, the first AL'er to do so in 14 years . . . Aside from Molitor, Mike Felder pockets 34 bases, making the duo Milwaukee's first to have more than 30 in the same season.

1988—The Brewers enter the season as an up and coming team in the AL East Division and finish it as the last team eliminated from the pennant race, winding up tied for third place just three games behind division winning Boston . . . They begin the season with a 12-0 win over the Baltimore Orioles on Opening Day . . . Upon returning to Milwaukee, the Brewers play before the largest crowd, 55,887, in the club's regular season history, yet fall to the New York Yankees, 7-1 . . . The team rebounded from a slow start in April (9-11) to post a 17-13 mark in May including their longest winning streak of the season, 10 games from April 30-May 9 . . . On May 28, Brewers journeyman pitcher Odell Jones nearly makes baseball history in Cleveland as he tosses 7.1 innings of perfect baseball and 8.1 innings of no-hit baseball in a 2-0 win . . . On June 8th, the Brewers acquired outfielder Jeffrey Leonard from the San Francisco Giants, in exchange for Infielder Ernest Riles . . . On June 12, Robin Yount becomes only the third player in Brewers history to hit for the cycle as he accomplished the feat against Chicago in a 16-2 win . . . As the All-Star break rolls around the Brewers are 44-43, tied for fourth place in the East . . . Paul Molitor is voted into the mid-summer classic by the fans as a second baseman despite playing in only one game there all season . . . Pitcher Dan Plesac joins Molitor on the All-Star team . . . On August 26, the Brewers acquire outfielder Mike Young from the Philadelphia Phillies in exchange for minor leaguer Alex Madrid . . . On August 28, manager Tom Trebelhorn mistakenly writes Robin Yount's name in the lineup twice. He meant to write in the newly acquired Young and the gaff leads to Yount's ejection from the game which the Brewers rally to win 12-10 over Detroit . . . On Sept. 3, shortstop Dale Sveum breaks his leg while chasing a pop-up in Detroit, thus opening the door for rookie phenom Gary Sheffield who performs well in the pennant drive . . . The Brewers go 18-8 in September and October are finally eliminated on Sept. 30 when they lose to Oakland, giving the Red Sox the Eastern Division Title . . . The Brewers have 1,923,238 fans pass through the turnstiles, their third highest total in club history.

Dan Plesac

1989—The Brewers entered the season as an AL East Division favorite but injuries to key players and inconsistent play caused the club to fall short of expectations, finishing at .500, 81-81, and in fourth place . . . They opened the season with five players on the disabled list: Paul Molitor, Ted Higuera, Dale Sveum, Juan Nieves, and Greg Brock . . . Don August was the Opening Day starter in Cleveland and he took a tough-luck loss to the Tribe, 2-1 . . . Their first win of the season came in the next game as Chris Bosio, the club's leading winner at 15-10, shutout Cleveland, 3-0 . . . The Brewers opened their home season on April 10 vs Texas before 54,301 fans . . . Unfortunately, the Rangers spoiled the day with a 6-4 10-inning victory . . . The Brewers first home win came four days later as they defeated the Indians, 8-4, at County Stadium . . . The Brewers finished April with a 10-12 record, just one game behind first place Baltimore . . . The Brewers were 12-16 in May as they fell 5 games behind first place Baltimore and in fifth place . . . B.J. Surhoff, Bill Spiers and Robin Yount paced the Brewers hitting attack in May . . . the Brewers could not post more than 2 wins in a row in May . . . as a matter of fact, the Brewers could not string three wins together again until June 25-28 . . . Rookie pitcher Jaime Navarro makes his major league debut on June 20 . . . The Brewers have their first plus .500 monthly record, 15-12, in June . . . Dan Plesac was chosen to the All-Star team, making him the first Brewers pitcher ever to be chosen three straight times and the first Brewers player to be named three straight times since Don Money . . . The Brewers open up the second half of the season by dropping 6 of 7 games to the Chicago White Sox and the Kansas City Royals . . .

History (Continued)

After a team meeting in Kansas City the Brewers respond by beginning to play well . . . The Brewers rally from 12 games behind Baltimore to just 1/2 game behind on August 21 going into a crucial road trip in Baltimore and Toronto . . . The Brewers unfortunately flounder losing 6 of 7 games and falling behind and practically out of the race . . . The Brewers name their 20th Anniversary Team as voted by the fans . . . Team members include: Cecil Cooper, Jim Gantner, Robin Yount, Paul Molitor, Sixto Lezcano, Gorman Thomas, Ben Oglivie, Hank Aaron, Charlie Moore, Pete Vuckovich, Mike Caldwell, and Rollie Fingers . . . The Brewers finish in fourth place, 8 games behind division winning Toronto . . . The Brewers draw 1,970,735, the third largest home attendance in team history . . . They also set a team record for road attendance at 2,214,755.

1990—As the season opened, the Brewers were predicted to fight with Toronto for the AL Eastern Division Championship . . . Early on, the Brewers did not disappoint as they raced to an early lead behind solid pitching and clutch hitting . . . On Opening Day in Milwaukee, the Brewers draw 50,294 fans as they drop a 5-3 decision to the Chicago White Sox . . . They shellack the Boston Red Sox, 18-0, the largest winning margin in club history, on April 16 . . . From April 18-22, the pitching staff tossed 31 straight scoreless innings, another club record . . . The Brewers remain in first place until May 15 when they drop to second . . . Paul Molitor scored his 1,000th run on May 15 . . . The Brewers moved back into first place briefly on June 1 but this would be the last time for the rest of the season . . . The Brewers acquire Pitchers Ron Robinson and Bob Sebra from the Cincinnati Reds in exchange for Outfielder Glenn Braggs and Infielder Billy Bates on June 9 . . . The Brewers pitching staff allowed 10 runs in the 4th inning on June 10 vs Toronto, a club record . . . Designated Hitter Dave Parker records his 2500th career hit on June 27 at New York off of Jimmy Jones who ironically also gave up Robin Yount's 2500th hit . . . A bench-clearing brawl on June 30 in Seattle results in suspensions to Manager Tom Trebelhorn, Catcher B.J. Surhoff, Infielder Gary Sheffield and Outfielder Mike Felder . . . The Brewers go into the All-Star break with a bang as they wallop California, 20-7 . . . In the game, the Brewers score a club record 13 runs in the 5th inning highlighted by Darryl Hamilton's first career grand slam . . . Hamilton finished the game with 6 RBI . . . History (Continued)

1994—It was to be a year of new beginnings, but it came to an abrupt halt due to a players strike—the eighth work stoppage in the 125 years of the sport . . . The Brewers were celebrating 25 years in the American League . . . They were in a new realigned American League Central Division . . . They had a new look . . . New logo . . . New uniforms. New faces . . . April fueled the optimism . . . Milwaukee got off to a strong start, winning its home opener for the first time in seven years . . . the Brewers finished the month tied for first place, winning 13 games—the second most in club history . . . On April 27, Minnesota's Scott Erickson no-hit the Brewers, marking only the second time in franchise history that happened . . . May (7-21) became a nightmare for the Brewers sinking into last place with their worst showing in club history . . . The Brewers drop a club record 14 straight games, going from first to last . . . May's highlight came during the final weekend when the Brewers honored Robin Yount, who had hung up his spikes after 20 seasons . . . A weekend total of 110,625 fans paid tribute to Yount as the club retired his uniform number in a special pre-game ceremony on May 29 . . . Milwaukee's roller-coaster season took a positive swing (17-10) climbing back with their best June since 1982 . . . Bill Wegman equaled a career best by winning his sixth straight game . . . Kevin Seitzer hit safely in 15 straight games during the month, the longest of the season . . . After inching their way to the .500 mark, the Brewers slip to a 39-48 record at the All-Star Break and don't recover for the rest of July . . . For the first time in four years, Milwaukee has a pitcher named to the American League All-Star team . . . Ricky Bones, who earned the spot, was the only player not used in the AL's 9-8 loss to the Nationals . . . On July 22, Rick Wrona equals a club record collecting three of the club's eight doubles in the contest . . . The Brewers also set a team standard by getting at least one extra base hit in 61 consecutive games . . . Dave Nilsson became the first Brewers catcher to reach double-digits in home runs in seven years . . . The Brewers suffer a blow when Kevin Seitzer is hit in the face on August 1 by Melido Perez' fastball . . . For the first time since 1982, Milwaukee collects three home runs in an inning to highlight a 10-run 7th against Detroit on August 8 . . . The Brewers final victory of the season comes on August 11—the last day—as they wind up with a dismal 53-62 mark . . . The players strike shuts the game down for the next 34 days before the owners pass a resolution on September 14 to cancel the remainder of the season . . . This marks the first time since 1904 that the World Series is not played.

ROBIN YOUNT TRIBUTE DAY

Pre-Game Uniform Retirement Ceremony

Sunday, May 29, 1994

— Transcript —

Public Address Announcer Bob Betts:

"Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to Milwaukee County Stadium, and Robin Yount Tribute Day. Please direct your attention to the home plate area, where we have several honored guests here today who were with Robin Yount throughout his illustrious career with the Milwaukee Brewers. They have assembled here today to pay tribute to their teammate, their friend, our hometown hero and future Hall of Famer—Robin Yount. At this time I turn the program over to Bob Uecker, your master of ceremonies who will commence our pre-game tribute."

Master of Ceremonies Bob Uecker:

"Thank you. Thank you Bob. And thank you for that wonderful ovation. How about a nice hand for Robin, too? And we welcome you here to County Stadium for a very, very special day. It's not too often that any of us will ever experience something like this again. I probably never will, but I know what Robin is going through because I went through a similar ceremony. Similar I said. They burned mine (uniform)! Any way, we have a lot of people here today that you are going to hear from and some you will not. Thank goodness for that! All of Robin's teammates, former teammates, his owner and his wonderful family over here—it's great to have you all here today. A lot of us thought this day would never happen but it all comes to an end sometime for all of us. As I look at Robin, Michele, Robin's mom and dad and all of Robin's kids, who I have known since they were fetuses. Look at them now. All beautiful young ladies and men. Good to have you kids here. Love you all. Our first speaker today is a former teammate of Robin's, an outstanding righthander whose son is an outstanding third baseman for the Toronto Blue Jays, I'm talking about Ed Sprague, right here.

Former Brewers pitcher and Robin Yount Teammate Ed Sprague:

"Thank you Bob. Thank you, Robin, on behalf of the hundreds of teammates you had since you've broken into the big leagues in Milwaukee in 1974, may I say that I'm privileged that I was asked to say a few words today in your honor. I've known him since he was 18 years-old. I have known him as a teammate, a roommate and a friend. And like you, as a fan. All of you that have known him will admit that he is one of the classiest representatives of the grand old game of baseball. While our country has gone through considerable changes since April 5th 1974, It's reassuring to know that Robin is still the same today as he was then. (He's) a show me, don't tell me leader on and off the field, a player loyal to his fans and his teammates. He was an all-star who played all out. Robin, from all of us who wore a Milwaukee uniform, I salute you. You're a great friend. We'll see you in Cooperstown."

Bob Uecker:

"Our next speaker is another former Brewer righthander. One of the most popular players to ever wear a Brewers uniform. Lets give a nice warm welcome for righthander Jimmy Slaton."

Former teammate Jim Slaton:

"Thank you. Throughout the years of baseball, the American public has been blessed with a few ballplayers who depict the title of true talent. True talent means knowing from the start that this ballplayer is an all-star, a team leader, a record breaker and a Hall of Famer. That's how I felt about Robin Yount. I was a Milwaukee Brewer for 12 years and a teammate of Robin's for nine of them. I first met Robin in 1974, when he was only 18 years old. He was fresh out of high school, trying to grow a mustache. But couldn't. Even at 18, we knew that Robin was something special. My most precious memories are those with the Milwaukee Brewers. Who could forget the 1982 American League Championship and World Series. And when someone looks at the 1982 American League pennant how can they not think of Robin Yount. Although it is a team effort, Robin had a lot to do with us getting there. I am very honored, not only for being here at County Stadium but also honored that Robin and I were teammates. Robin, I congratulate you on having your number retired. When people think of the Milwaukee Brewers they think of Robin Yount."

Bob Uecker:

"We direct your attention to the scoreboard . . . we have a video from another former great who now plays for the Toronto Blue Jays. A former teammate and one of Milwaukee's greatest players ever, Paul Molitor."

Former teammate Paul Molitor:

"Robin showed everyone that he was a class act. He came (into this game) and goes out the same way. He never changed along the way. He gave that city and organization everything he had. (He gave) twenty years that city will never forget. What he did for me as a player, the lessons he taught me about consistency, effort and professionalism, as well as the friendship we developed, Robin I hope you know how much I appreciate you and what you have done. I wish you and the family the very best."

Bob Uecker:

"Our next speaker is another former teammate of Robin's. If you check under your seats there should be headphones there . . . you'll need an interpreter. How about a nice hand for former Brewers second baseman, one of the most popular players to wear a Brewers uniform or a baseball uniform in the city of Milwaukee, Jimmy Gantner."

Former teammate Jim Gantner:

"Thank you. This is a very special day. At the same time, this is a very sad day. It's special because today we get to honor a great ballplayer. He's a great player because he played 20 years of consistent baseball. He played the same day-in and day-out no matter the situation. He was a great leader. He was a leader by the way he played the game. He played hurt. He played with pain. And he played hard at all times. What's sad about today is that all of baseball, Milwaukee, the state of Wisconsin has to say goodbye to such a great guy, a very humble person. Here's a man, who played for 20 years who had all the success and accomplishments and stayed humble. There aren't too many guys who could put up those numbers and stay that humble. It was a pleasure for me to play with Robin for 15 years. He was a leader. I learned a lot from him. He was a great example. And I know, that through 20 years of being humble and consistent he had to have a lot of help at home. That support, I believe in my heart, came from his wife Michele and his family. Robin, I want to thank you for the great memories. The good times. The bad times. You're going to be missed. Thank you."

Bob Uecker:

"Now it's time to introduce some of Robin's former teammates who are here today to participate in these ceremonies to honor one of baseball's bests. First of all, former Brewers lefthander Jerry Augustine . . . Next former Brewers catcher Bill Schroeder . . . We all knew him as the "Bulldog" one of baseball's best relief pitchers, Kenny Sanders . . . Former Brewer first baseman, Greg Brock . . . We went way back, searching high and low, and we found this guy, Al Yates . . . One of the more popular Brewers to ever play in this city, he's back, Gorman Thomas . . . Former 20-game winner, lefthander Mike Caldwell . . . Another outstanding member of this Brewers ball club until a couple of years ago, he still has a home here in Milwaukee, Chris Bosio . . . A great friend, who suffered an unbelievable injury a few years back and who knows what might have happened had this guy stayed healthy. (I'm) glad to see him back in the big leagues, a great guy. How about a great big hand for Dale Sveum . . .

"A presentation now from one of Robin's teammates, he'll do the speaking, but this represents the Brewers ball club. B.J. Surhoff."

Former teammate B.J. Surhoff:

"Thanks Bob. You know Rob, all of us over here have been touched for 20 years not one of us has been left out. All of us appreciate what you have done for us. As a token of our appreciation, we know the few interests you have—racing and golf. Next year, we would like to send you to Scotland to the British Open for seven to 10 days of golf . . . So on behalf of the players and staff we hope you have a great time at Royal St. Andrews and at whatever other courses you may play. Thank you."

Bob Uecker:

"Let me just say, Robin, it has been a great ride. We have been together for a long, long time. We have the luxury seeing each other every winter. He talked me into getting a Harley-Davidson motorcycle. And then you quit on me. (Left me) by myself. But Rob, let me say this, nobody epitomizes the spirit of winning, the spirit of sportsmanship and the spirit of family more than you. You have made thousands and thousands of friends. That is something you'll never be short of. From myself and my family to you and your family, as I said on the video, enjoy life, so long kid, see you in Cooperstown . . .

"I would like to bring up our boss-man. If any player has ever had a relationship with an owner better than Robin Yount and better than a lot of these players that have come through this organization, I have yet to see it. I say that to include myself. How about a nice hand for the man that runs the show here; who wants to keep baseball in this city forever and ever and ever. Bud Selig."

Milwaukee Brewers President Allan H.(Bud) Selig:

"Thank you very much Bob. This, I'm sure for all of us, will be a very emotional day. In the long history of owning a baseball team, you rarely run into the type of individual we are honoring here today. Many have made the fact that Robin and I have had a very special relationship. It was easy. He is one of the remarkably nice human beings I have ever known in my whole life. It would be easy today to dwell on those marvelous accomplishments on the field. But I say this to all of our players here today and for the generations of players to come after you: 'he came to play every day; he played hard; and he gave you everything he had every day. You can never ask anymore from anybody.'

"Now, we have a little presentation for you Robin. I would like to introduce Rich Teerlink, the president of Harley-Davidson, who's going to bring a little something in.

(Teerlink rides in from leftfield gate on a new Harley touring motorcycle.)

"In 1982, in our pennant celebration, when he rode around the field, he almost gave me a heart attack. Today, ride this for many years, in good health and enjoy.

"And now, I would like to direct your attention to the centerfield bleacher fence.

(Robin Yount's retired uniform number 19 is unveiled.)

"In our brief but interesting 25 year history look at the tradition: the great Hank Aaron; the greatest relief pitcher of all-time (Rollie Fingers); and now the great Robin Yount, whose numbers have been retired. I would at this time, like to introduce Robin's family, mother and father, his wife Michele, his children, Melissa, Amy, Dustin and Jenna; his brother Larry and his family. Would you all please rise. A wonderful family.

"Well, that's the ceremony. (I'm) going to introduce Robin. There are so many things that I would like to say. That I could say. This is just another stop, Robin, on the way to Cooperstown."

Robin Yount:

"Thank you very much. Believe it or not, I actually have something to say. Very few people ever accomplish everything they set out to do. I know I certainly haven't. But when I look out there and see my number between Henry Aaron's and Rollie Fingers', I've accomplished something that I could never imagine could happen. Somewhere along the line, we must have done something right. There is one thing I've been reassured of this weekend, and I know that I did right, and that was to say stay here in Milwaukee my entire career . . .

"After 20 years, I hope I don't bore you, but I do have a lot of people to thank:

"I would like to start with my family. My wife Michele for putting up with me and raising four beautiful children with very little help from me. I would like to thank my children, Melissa, Amy, Dustin and Jenna for helping during all that time. I like to thank my mom and dad for always allowing me to do whatever I chose and supporting me through that, whatever it may have been. I like to thank my brothers Larry and Jim and their families for making my life off the field so much simpler. I like to thank Bud, Sue and Wendy Selig, not for being terrific owners, that they were and are, but for being great friends. I like to thank Harry Dalton for helping put together those great teams of the late-70s and early-80s which I have such fond memories of. I like to thank Sal Bando for his leadership and guidance . . . Sal's a great man. I like to thank everyone in the Brewers organization, they made my life around here so enjoyable. I like to thank Bob and Judy Uecker, with those two around, if you had a couple of bad days, you went and saw them and turned them into good days real fast. I like to thank Jim Gantner, Ed Sprague and Jim Slaton and all the rest of guys for participating in this event. I like to thank all my managers, from my first, Del Crandall, who gave me an opportunity to play as an 18-year old kid to my last Phil Garner, who gave me an opportunity to play as a 38-year old, old-timer. I like to make a special thank you to one manager in particular, the late-Harvey Kuenn. Harvey taught me how the game of baseball, at the major league level, was supposed to be played. I like to thank all the coaches, who have a thankless job of throwing batting practice, hour-upon-hour and hitting infield and outfield and getting very little recognition for it . . . even you Duff (Duffy Dyer). I like to thank all my teammates, because more often than not, it is the people around you that make you look good. I like to thank this team for that great trip to Scotland. I like to thank the Brewers and Harley-Davidson for the motorcycle . . . that's great. And most of all, although I never made my permanent residence here, I want to thank all of you, the fans of Milwaukee and Wisconsin for always making me feel like this was home . . .

"I have one more thing to say. I hope and I'm confident everyone will support this young team the way you supported a young 18-year old shortstop and a young team 20 years ago, so that they will always have major league baseball here in Milwaukee. Thank you very much."

(Robin Yount rides off, waving to the fans, on the Harley-Davidson motorcycle.)

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs NEW YORK

For the first time in major league history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half confronted MILWAUKEE, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post-season action, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

1982 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs CALIFORNIA

In a dramatic and thrilling American League Championship Series, Milwaukee set a precedent in LCS play. The Brewers overcame an 0-2 deficit against California to win their first American League Pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium, sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance by Milwaukee was a first in LCS history.

1982 WORLD SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs ST. LOUIS

It was labeled the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers four-games-to-three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

THE LONG & SHORT OF THINGS

Nine records were broken when the Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago White Sox played a 25 inning, 8 hour and 6 minute game in Comiskey Park on May 8-9, 1984. They played the longest major league (8:06) and American League game (8:06 & 25 innings); longest game at Comiskey Park, the longest Brewers and White Sox game ever, longest game of 1984, most innings caught by a catcher (Carlton Fisk, 25) and most at bats by a Brewers hitter (11, Cecil Cooper). Harold Baines homered off Chuck Porter with one out in the bottom of the 25th to give Chicago a 7-6 win.

On May 1, 1991, the Brewers and White Sox met in the longest game in Brewers history at County Stadium. The 19-inning marathon lasted 6 hours and 5 minutes as the Brewers prevailed 10-9.

The Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago White Sox set a Brewers record for the longest 9 inning game when they played 4 hours and 11 minutes on July 10, 1983 at Comiskey Park. The Brewers won the game, 12-9.

The Brewers and Minnesota Twins battled 22 innings on May 12, 1972 at the old Met Stadium in Bloomington, MN, which is the longest game in Twins' history. The Brewers won the marathon 4-3, a game which took 5 hours and 47 minutes to complete.

The Brewers and California Angels raced through a 9 inning contest on May 6, 1972 in the Big-A in Anaheim, CA. The game, the shortest in both clubs' history was won by the Angels, 2-0, in 1 hour and 31 minutes.

SPECIAL TICKET PROGRAMS

BIRTHDAY AT THE PARK PACKAGES—For just $12, you can treat your favorite baseball fan to a special birthday at the ballpark. Fans purchasing a "Birthday At The Park" package will receive a gift box of great souvenirs, their name in lights on the scoreboard and a personal Happy Birthday serenade. To purchase a "Birthday At The Park" package, call (414) 933-9000 or 1-800-933-7890.

BREWERS BUDDIES PROGRAM—The Brewers Buddies Program makes baseball games at County Stadium available to children who otherwise would be unable to attend and enjoy the All-American sport. The program, made possible by ticket contributions from area corporations and Season Ticket Holders, distributes tickets to low income, handicapped, troubled and other disadvantaged youth throughout Wisconsin.

COCA-COLA FAN CLUB—For $14, kids 12 and under receive a membership card good for six free general admission tickets on selected dates throughout the season and an opportunity to run the bases like the big leaguers at County Stadium. Call (414) 933-4114 for more information.

GIFT CERTIFICATES—Brewers Gift Certificates are a great idea for that special occasion and that special Brewers fan. Available in denominations as low as $1, Brewers gift certificates are not only good for tickets but also parking and attractions in the Brewers Boardwalk located in the leftfield concourse. To purchase a gift certificate, stop by the Brewers Ticket Office or call (414) 933-9000 or 1-800-933-7890.

HENRI'S KIDS AND SENIORS DATES—There are 27 special Kids and Senior Citizens Dates on the 1995 schedule. On KSC Dates, all youngsters 14 and under and all senior citizens receive $3.50 off all reserved and General Admission seats.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS FAMILY SECTIONS—The Milwaukee Brewers have special family sections, designated areas which prohibit all alcoholic beverages, available for every game. There is also no smoking in the family sections. A minimum of 2,875 seats are reserved in the upper boxes (Box 4), lower grandstand (Section 3) and upper grandstand (Section 4) and in the centerfield bleachers (Sections J-K). The Brewers created these special sections in 1987, as part of a continuing effort to provide an environment attractive to the entire family.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS GOLD CLUB

The Brewers Gold Club is a volunteer sales force designed to assist the Milwaukee Brewers with their season and group sales efforts. It is comprised of successful, civic-minded individuals from throughout the community.

This dynamic selling force, in addition to selling tickets, will help to draw the Milwaukee Brewers and the business community into a closer relationship evidenced by a substantial ticket commitment to be in effect through 2000 announced by the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce on January 23, 1995.

The Brewers Gold Club will play a vital role in the long-term success and stability of this franchise. While accomplishing these goals, members will become an extension of the Brewers in the community and will share in the experience of being associated with Major League Baseball. Members of the Gold Club will also serve as ambassadors in stating the benefits and goodwill a Major League team brings to the state of Wisconsin.

Headed by the Brewers' Geoff Campion, the Gold Club was created in February of 1992. The group is patterned after other clubs who have had successful private sales forces such as the Royal Lancers in Kansas City (created in 1969), the Designated Hitters in Baltimore (1979) and the Gemini Club in Minnesota (1988).

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Only four Milwaukee Brewers have ever hit for the cycle in a game: Mike Hegan (1976), Charlie Moore (1980), Robin Yount (1988) and Paul Molitor (1991). Hegan managed to hit a double, homer and a triple off Detroit's Mark "The Bird" Fidrych on September 3, 1976 in Tiger Stadium and completed the task by hitting a single off Bill Laxton. He finished the day with four hits in five at-bats including a walk, two runs scored and six RBI. Moore hit for the cycle on October 1, 1980 at California, singling off Ed Halicki, homering off Chris Knapp, tripling off Dave Schuler and finally doubling off Mark Clear. He went four-for-five in the game with three RBI and two stolen bases, capping off the best single game performance of his career. On June 12, 1988, in Chicago, Yount singled and homered off Joel Davis, doubled off Bill Long and tripled off Steve Rosenberg, finishing the game with a walk and a club record-tying four runs scored. Yount became the second player ever to record the feat as a designated hitter joining Kansas City's John Mayberry (1973). Molitor was the most recent Brewers hitter to register each of the four hits in a single game. He did so off of Minnesota's Kevin Tapani at the Metrodome on May 15, 1991. Molitor also accomplished the feat as a designated hitter becoming the third player to do it.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS PLAYERS WITH 200 HIT-SEASONS

Three players have surpassed the 200 hit mark in one season while wearing a Brewers uniform, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat three times. Cooper set a club record in 1980 when he pounded out 219 hits and he also accomplished the feat in 1982 (205) and 1983 (203). Paul Molitor also reached the 200-hit plateau in 1982 with 201. Robin Yount (210) has also accomplished the feat, as Yount, Cooper and Molitor finished 1-2-3 in the American League in hits in 1982, marking the first time that has happened since the 1915 Detroit Tigers.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS — 100 RBI PLAYERS

There have been eight members of the Milwaukee Brewers who have reached the 100 RBI mark during a single season, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat four times. Other players who surpassed the 100 RBI mark more than once included Gorman Thomas and Robin Yount three times, and Ben Oglivie and George Scott twice apiece.
